MEMORANDUM FOR THE RECORD

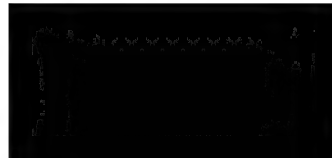

12 January 1954

SUBJECT: [REDACTED]

1. [REDACTED] was notified on 12 January 1954 that he may proceed to hire the two additional maintenance men required for the operation of the enlarged [REDACTED] activities. He was also advised that T/O positions would be provided to cover his present overstrength as well as the two additional positions for maintenance men. Lastly, he was informed that the A-DD/A would visit [REDACTED] next week.

2. [REDACTED] called 11 January 1954 and advised that Commo was prepared to provide two CPC-6 positions on the [REDACTED] T/O to cover two guard positions for their new [REDACTED]. Mr. [REDACTED] also advised that [REDACTED] extension 2934, should be contacted for final arrangements. Since [REDACTED] is going to be able to meet the additional guard requirements by strengthening the duties of the existing guard force, but is unable to meet the over-all increased maintenance requirements, he needs two maintenance positions and not two guard positions. Mr. [REDACTED] was notified of this misunderstanding on the part of Commo so that he would not inadvertently convert two GS positions on the [REDACTED] T/O to CPC-6 positions.

3. The A-DD/A will determine how the four positions shall be actually provided (from DD/A reserve and/or transfer from [REDACTED] reserve) after his visit to [REDACTED] next week.

1/21/54 - 2 positions from DDA ceiling reserve
